Case Study

Name of Trainees- Shabnam, Kusum & Rubeena
Address: Baraura Balaganj Dist. Lucknow.
Trade of Vocational Training: Garment Making
Period of training: 1st June 2023 to 31st Sep2023
Work- Boutique (Collective Enterprises)

Shabnam, Kusum & Rubeena are ordinary women of the poor family in Baraura Balaganj Lucknow. Shabnam's Father is a vegetable seller, Kusum's have a 4 sister her family is very big & Rubina's husband does not live with her. Theirs family circumstance is pitiable since the income of the household is hardly able to meet the expense. So we selected their names for joining the Garment Making course, but she was very hesitant and expressed her apprehension whether she would be able to do justice to the efforts. But she is in dire need of an employment which will earn some income for the family. The organization convinced of her circumstance held discussions with her and persuaded her to join the training programme. Gradually with the help of trainer and fellow trainees her apprehensions were gone and she started learning the work. Their improvement in both measurements, designing, cutting and tailoring has been quite appreciable and she started independently doing the work after about four months. Her illiteracy has not been found as a problem for learning the training programme rather she herself developed the knack of functional literacy.

The various activities including Life Skill EDP instilled her confidence in the work and the dying need for augmenting income for the family infused the necessity for doing a better job in the training programme. Towards the end of the training course her performance has been found more that the expectation of the trainer and fellow trainees. They was already identified a suitable location for setting up her own Boutique and under process for getting Loan for spread for their business . She has requested the trainer & field In charge to keep visiting her illiteracy has not been found as a problem for learning the training programme rather she herself developed the knack of functional literacy. For further support. Theirs success story as the people of the locality has taken note of her improvement in her skill which will generate income for the family but also is setting as an example for other similarly deprived people to join such skill development programme for betterment of their living conditions. They are now be able to start earning good income within a short time.
